

Jamie Sutherland

Former Financial Advisor and bank manager, Jamie brings humour and originality to his after dinner speeches. After spending 14 years on the Banking High Street with Abbey/Santander, Jamie decided to head into the world of stand up comedy.

It was during his time in the bank that he developed as an after dinner speaker, business conferences and meetings gave him the opportunity to try out his routines!

Liverpool has a history for producing some of the countries finest comedy talent, and Jamie Sutherland can now be added to that fine list.

A headline act on the comedy circuit, working for some of the countries finest clubs including Sheffield Last Laugh, Jongleurs, and Comedy Central. Jamie is also a resident MC for Everton FC, and hosts the hospitality lounges for all games at Goodison Park

A very original act, who will keep you amused with gags, tales, and stories. Jamie is a modern act, with many observational topics, and up to date material, and don't worry if you prefer a good old style gag, he has plenty of them thrown in, ensuring a performance that will touch everyone's buttons.

Jamie is one of only a few comics that can tailor his performance to suit your audience, extremely popular with corporate clients, and he's equally at home performing to crowds at his nearby club.

He can be seen regularly at Brinsop Comedy Club, Bolton, were he has been resident compere since Nov 2005, he has supported some of the biggest names in comedy, and has gained a reputation as one of the rising stars of comedy
